

TRANSFORMING SCHOOL CULTURE

reflections, goals, and questions

SESSION 1:

QUESTIONS:

1. Think of three positive words that others have used in a compliment.
2. What have you accomplished to cause others to describe you in a positive way?
3. What design or features would be a part of your school?
4. In what ways are you supported? Who supports you? What do you provide for others?
5. What were some moments in the last year where you have felt proud?
6. Write down a few key words that describe the positive situation.
7. Think of that rock star staff member that you wish was not present or involved with educating children. What are some words/adjectives used to describe them? Now start at 1 and work your way towards 10, adding more descriptors as you go along and eventually end up at that rock star staff member.

PICK 2: CHOOSE 2 QUESTIONS FROM ABOVE

INBOX

TRANSFORMING SCHOOL CULTURE

We are going to make a continuum or timeline of sorts that uses descriptors and a scale from 1 to 10. Think of 10 being a rock star staff member in your building. What are some words/adjectives used to describe them? Now think of 1 as that staff member that you wish was not present or involved with educating children. What are some words/adjectives used to describe them? Now start at 1 and work your way towards 10, adding more descriptors as you go along and eventually end up at that rock star staff member.

TRANSFORMATION STARTS WITH YOU

a self-reflection tool

Self-reflection statements: Please read and respond to the following statements using the scale below. BE HONEST AND TRUTHFUL - THIS IS ONLY FOR YOU.

STRONGLY AGREE (SA) AGREE (A) SOMEWHAT AGREE (SWA) SOMEWHAT DISAGREE (SWD) DISAGREE (D) STRONGLY DISAGREE (SD)

1. I consistently have many thoughts and ideas on how to teach my students.

SA A SWA SWD D SD

2. I am very self-motivated.

SA A SWA SWD D SD

TRANSFORMING

SCHOOL

CULTURE

a workbook for
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

created by Ashley Schroeder and Craig Caroff

Positively PD

Positively PD

Transform Your School's Culture

Positively PD would love the opportunity to work with you in transforming your school's culture. We will bring a positive approach to the table, building what we aim to be an outstanding relationship with your staff.

Within this workbook and syllabus you will have the opportunity to both grow as an individual and make a positive impact within the building. Whether it be interacting with the Inbox questions, sharing a Shout-Out or two or challenging you or your team to think outside the box, you will demonstrate and gain confidence in your ability to make a positive difference for students and staff while creating the atmosphere of your dreams.