

THE POWER OF YOU

Your gift to Goodwill helps fund programs for individuals with disabilities and other barriers, helping them gain employment, independence and self-confidence. Goodwill serves our most vulnerable citizens, including:

- Veterans
- Currently or formerly homeless
- Those with limited education or work experience
- The unemployed or under-employed
- Non-English speakers
- Ex-offenders
- Those living with mental illness

Your gift helps fund programs that restore hope. Thank you for your partnership.

PROGRAMS YOU SUPPORT

Workforce Development – An inclusive environment where job seekers get the support they need to learn a new skill—or polish a previous one—to move toward fulfilling and rewarding employment

Day Programs – Work & Community Services, Sage Senior Services and Young Adult Services help foster community integration and build valuable life and work skills

Residential Programs – Supported Living and Onsite Residence, where people with disabilities can live their best, most dignified life

Supported Recreation & Education – Where participants learn new things, go new places and make new friends

Goodwill Gladiators – Where participants excel and shine while engaging in Special Olympics athletic events

Goodwill Art Studio & Gallery – Where persons with disabilities and other barriers collaborate with professional artists and develop creative self-expression

DISCOVER THE
POWER OF GOOD

THE POWER OF GOOD

THANK YOU for your commitment to Goodwill's mission of transforming the lives of individuals with disabilities and other barriers through pathways to independence and the power of work. Together, we empower people to live fulfilling lives. Here are some of the ways your gift makes a tangible difference to those we serve:

- Providing job training and placement to people entering the workforce, many for the very first time
- Enabling individuals with disabilities to fully experience the joys of community engagement
- Moving people to independence through life skills and financial skills classes
- Helping individuals tap into their creativity through our fine arts program
- Improving health through comprehensive fitness programs

THE POWER OF INDEPENDENCE

“Thanks to Goodwill, I have learned job skills and volunteered in the community. Goodwill has given me the motivation to become more independent.”

TRISTAN, Young Adult Services

THE POWER OF GIVING

Your gift of:

$10

Funds an hour of training for a job seeker

$15

Provides life skills classes like cooking or money management

$25

Buys art supplies for a fine arts program for adults with disabilities

$50

Provides a half-day of Core Office training classes

$100

Pays for one person to take the State Tested Nurses Aide exam