Central Ohio student performers showcased at premier state education conference

COLUMBUS — A Columbus City Schools musical group will perform at the Ohio School Boards Association (OSBA) 2018 Student Achievement Fair in Columbus. The Centennial High School Mixed Ensemble is just one of five groups selected to perform at the fair — a highlight of OSBA's 63rd annual Capital Conference and Trade Show, which runs Nov. 11-13 at the Greater Columbus Convention Center.

Representing OSBA's Central Region, the mixed ensemble, under the direction of Pamela Welsh-Huggins, will perform Monday, Nov. 12, from 1:20 p.m. to 1:40 p.m. in the convention center's Hall B. The Student Achievement Fair features 100 original projects and programs created by Ohio public schools.

More than 9,000 public education stakeholders are expected to attend the Capital Conference. In addition, more than 550 exhibitors will display their goods and services at the Trade Show, the nation's largest education trade exhibition.

News media are invited to report on the Student Achievement Fair as well as other conference events. Contact Crystal Davis (phone and email listed above) for details on free media registration. For conference details, visit <http://conference.ohioschoolboards.org>.

In its 63rd year, OSBA leads the way to educational excellence by serving Ohio's public school board members and the diverse districts they represent through superior service, unwavering advocacy and creative solutions.
