

Leadership for Learning

Ohio School Boards Association

Capital Conference

Nov. 10-12, 2019 • Greater Columbus Convention Center

The OSBA Capital Conference is the key event of the year for all of us playing a role in public education in Ohio. From new board members and veterans to school administration and staff, the conference has something for everyone. You will find abundant learning sessions, one of the largest trade shows for education in the country and the best annual opportunity to learn from each other by networking with familiar colleagues and new friends. With our collective focus on improving education for Ohio's schoolchildren, this is the best opportunity each year for our own education and professional development. Please join me this November in attending what I am sure will be the best Capital Conference ever. The OSBA Capital Conference is where you can continue your own journey as a lifelong learner and bring new ideas and best practices back home to the most precious asset in your community and our state, the children of Ohio.

— OSBA President John W. Halkias, Plain Local (Stark)

Working together to cultivate excellence

Got challenges? Of course you do. Tough ones. Tough challenges call for innovative solutions, and that's just what you'll find at the 2019 Capital Conference and Trade Show — a three-day celebration of learning, sharing and student achievement. The 64th annual conference, guided by the philosophy of leadership for learning, will showcase a sweeping range of topics for school district management teams.

Ohio's premier public education conference

For more than six decades, the Capital Conference and Trade Show has been the must-attend education convention of the year. From the first conference in 1956, which drew 2,000 school leaders to Columbus, to today's events that attract more than 9,000 participants, the Capital Conference has been the place to discover fresh ideas, inspirational insights, proven strategies and powerful leadership tools.

The Greater Columbus Convention Center will be filled with countless opportunities at every turn. The expanded agenda is packed with a diverse range of topics in the General Sessions and luncheons, in-depth workshops, specialized seminars and hundreds of timely exhibits and displays.

No other conference offers such a wide-ranging — and affordable — offering of professional development. It's a tremendous value, and what you gain in knowledge more than outweighs the investment of time and money.

Whatever your leadership role, the conference's wall-to-wall learning opportunities will renew your commitment to your students, staff and community. So, embrace your passion for leadership and learning — register for the Capital Conference and Trade Show today. Join thousands of colleagues to demonstrate your commitment to improving public education in your district and across the state.

Unparalleled professional development

The Capital Conference is the only professional development event in Ohio designed specifically for public school management teams. It offers the most up-to-date information and resources on critical public education issues, trends and challenges. Learning sessions — the “core curriculum” of the conference — are organized into focus areas and led by top experts in their fields. Networking opportunities abound. Being surrounded by thousands of other school leaders offers numerous opportunities to collaborate and connect to share challenges and solutions.

Sunday sessions expand learning opportunities

A full slate of programming is scheduled on Sunday afternoon, including multiple educational seminars and a General Session. Take advantage of two leadership development Spotlight Sessions, one focusing on recruiting leaders in urban districts and the other on growing your own leaders. Sunday also features an evening Welcome Reception, which provides attendees an informal atmosphere in which to network while enjoying great food and refreshments.

Targeted training throughout the conference

This year’s conference will once again offer specialized training on all three days of the event. These sessions are targeted toward department leaders and other district specialists. You’ll find training designed for principals, curriculum coordinators, transportation directors, counselors, athletic directors, security experts, human resource managers, public relations professionals, technology directors, community liaisons and more.

Inspirational and innovative keynote speakers

The First General Session speaker is Jason Latimer, a world-class magician, curator of the Fleet Science Center and co-host of the Science Channel series “SciJinks.” Award-winning film, TV and stage actress Laura Linney speaks at the Second General Session. Linney is known for her roles in the films “Sully,” “Mystic River” and “The Truman Show,” the hit Netflix series “Ozark” and “Tales of the City” and Showtime’s “The Big C.” She also is a tireless advocate for the charity Stand Up To Cancer.

A spotlight on student achievement

If you’re looking for educational innovations, look no further than the Student Achievement Fair. This highly popular event shines a spotlight on 100 of Ohio’s most imaginative and forward-looking school district programs. Talk with students and teachers at their booths and you’re sure to be impressed by the innovative work districts around the state are doing to increase student achievement and prepare Ohio’s children for the future. The fair is an outstanding place to find new ideas to put into practice in your own district. It also features five talented student entertainment groups — one from each of OSBA’s regions — and a fine arts exhibit.

Registration opens July 15

Registration materials will be mailed to districts or you can download registration forms at <http://conference.ohioschoolboards.org>

A must-see trade exhibition

The Capital Conference Trade Show has a sterling reputation as the biggest and best exhibition of school goods, services and programs in the nation. This vast exposition— nearly four acres under one roof — features approximately 600 booths of vendors offering everything a school district needs to promote student achievement and operate at maximum efficiency. Drawings will be held throughout the show to give attendees chances to win prizes for their districts.

Essential events

Conference Luncheons (separate registration required)

The Conference Luncheons provide another chance to hear renowned speakers share their leadership strategies and success stories. The Monday Conference Luncheon presenter is Dr. Frederic Bertley, chief executive officer of the Center of Science and Industry (COSI) in Columbus. Prior to joining COSI, Bertley was a leader at the renowned Franklin Institute in Philadelphia, where he directed visionary initiatives in STEM learning. The Tuesday Conference Luncheon features former Ohio State University football star Maurice Clarett. Also known for his troubled life outside of football that led to his imprisonment, Clarett now speaks at prisons and juvenile detention facilities and works through his Red Zone foundation to share his story to help keep others from repeating it.

OSBA Black Caucus Dinner (separate registration required)

Sunday’s OSBA Black Caucus Dinner, which is open to all attendees, provides the opportunity to network with fellow board members and discuss issues impacting African-American and ethnically and culturally diverse students and board members. The theme of this year’s dinner is Boards of Diversity Providing Academic Access to all Students. The keynote speaker is State Board of Education Vice President Charlotte McGuire. She was appointed to the board in 2016 to represent District 3, which covers Butler, Darke, Miami, Montgomery and Preble counties, and earned an elected position in 2018. In her more than 40 years of government and nonprofit leadership experience, McGuire has worked to enrich the lives of the homeless, elderly, youth and families.

Spotlight Sessions

These sessions allow time for attendees to take a more in-depth look into timely issues crucial to school district leadership and success. Topics include legislative updates, school board policy, diversity and inclusion, school transportation, leadership development and the interaction of school funding and Ohio tax policy.

Inspiring General Session speakers

First General Session • Sunday, Nov. 10 • 3:45 p.m.-5:30 p.m.

Jason Latimer — world champion of magic, scientist and host of ‘SciJinks’

Jason Latimer is not only changing education, he is on a mission to globally inspire wonder.

As a magician, Latimer is the series champion of the BBC One’s “The Magicians,” the recipient of Siegfried & Roy’s Masters of the Impossible Award and was bestowed with magic’s highest honor, Grand Prix “Best Overall” World Champion of Magic.

As a scientist, he is the creator of Impossible Science, the academic platform uniting magic and science to inspire wonder in education. Latimer is the curator of Impossible Science at the iconic Fleet Science Center in San Diego, but his STEM program has expanded to science centers throughout Southern California.

Today, Latimer co-hosts the Science Channel’s new series “SciJinks,” with Johnny Galecki, from “The Big Bang Theory,” and Tamara Robertson, from “Mythbusters: The Search.”

Sponsored by Baird Public Finance, Bricker & Eckler LLP, Diamond Assets, CompManagement Health Systems, Pepple & Waggoner Ltd. and Walter Haverfield LLP.

Second General Session • Tuesday, Nov. 12 • 10:30 a.m.-noon.

Laura Linney — award-winning theater, film and television actress

Laura Linney’s respect and gratitude for creative expression is limitless. Born to a prominent New York City playwright and a nurse, the Golden Globe, SAG and Emmy award-winning actress began her experiential education in performance art at an early age.

After graduating from The Juilliard School, Linney went on to appear in leading roles across film, television and theater. She’s performed in myriad productions, such as the upcoming films “Genius” and “Nocturnal Animals.” Other films include “Mr. Holmes,” “Kinsey,” “You Can Count on Me,” “Mystic River,” “Love Actually” and “The Truman Show.” Notable television credits include the Showtime series “The Big C,” the HBO mini-series “John Adams,” the Netflix series “Ozark” and “Tales of the City” and NBC’s “Frasier.” Prominent Broadway productions include “The Crucible,” “Time Stands Still,” “Sight Unseen” and “Six Degrees of Separation.”

Linney has also been honored for her work in cancer advocacy. Having lost family to cancer, she understands the unique physical and emotional damage inflicted on victims and families. She aims to help them find ways to cope, grow and rebuild so that each one can truly win his or her own fight against cancer.

Special events offer fresh insights

OSBA Black Caucus Dinner • Sunday, Nov. 10 • 7 p.m.-9 p.m.

Charlotte McGuire — State Board of Education vice president

Charlotte McGuire was appointed to the State Board of Education in 2016 and elected in 2018. Born and raised in Memphis, Tenn., during the segregation era, she considers herself a committed voice for the success of Ohio's children.

With more than 40 years of government and nonprofit leadership experience, McGuire has worked with others to enrich the lives of the homeless, elderly, youth and families, and has received many community service and leadership awards for her work. With support from local foundations, she and her husband, Arthur McGuire Sr., launched the Excel Afterschool Program to engage parents of elementary students to improve school achievement and attendance.

Attendees will have the opportunity to donate to the Leo Lucas Scholarship, which provides graduating culturally and ethnically diverse seniors funds for college. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., with dinner at 7 p.m. The cost of the dinner is $85; the reservation deadline is Nov. 1. To register for the dinner, notify your district treasurer or indicate your request on the conference registration form. Registration is required; limited tickets will be sold at the door for $90. Please indicate any special accommodations needed. All conference attendees are invited.

Monday Luncheon • Monday, Nov. 11 • 12:15 p.m.-1:30 p.m.

Dr. Frederic Bertley — COSI chief executive officer

Dr. Frederic Bertley is a scientist, scholar and evangelist for innovative thinking, ideation and challenging the status quo. As the president and chief executive officer of the Center of Science and Industry (COSI), he imagines it as the epicenter for all things scientific for the Columbus community.

Prior to joining COSI, Bertley was senior vice president for science and education with the renowned Franklin Institute in Philadelphia, where he directed a diverse portfolio of visionary initiatives supporting innovation in STEM learning and science communication. He played a critical role in the institute's community outreach, partnerships and fundraising practices and directed various departments supporting research-based projects as well as program development and implementation. Bertley also founded and directed The Color of Science, which highlights the incredible contributions of women and people of color to modern day science and engineering.

Doors open at noon. Registration is $56; contact your treasurer to register or indicate your request on the conference registration form. Please indicate any special accommodations needed. Sponsored by CompManagement Health Systems, GradyBenefits and Ohio School Plan.

Tuesday Luncheon • Tuesday, Nov. 12 • 12:15 p.m.-1:30 p.m.

Maurice Clarett — athlete, business leader and entrepreneur

Maurice Clarett's physical prowess as a football star at Warren City's Warren G. Harding High School caught the eyes of recruiters at Ohio State University (OSU) who saw his potential. This would prove to be great insight, as he would be the first freshman running back to start, be named Big Ten Freshman of the Year and set the freshman rushing and touchdown season records. Most notably, he played an instrumental role in OSU clinching the national championship in 2002.

After a series of personal setbacks, Clarett stood at a crossroad in his life with two paths to choose: either succumb to his challenges or overcome them. He chose the latter and developed the Maurice Clarett brand, which offers expertise in the worlds of athletics, education and business. His success as an author and motivational speaker is a testament to his transparency, self-accountability and personal responsibility. Never one to shy away from his past mistakes, his courage to openly share the secrets of his own challenges has created a loyal following of thousands.

Doors open at noon. Registration is $56; contact your treasurer to register or indicate your request on the conference registration form. Please indicate any special accommodations needed. Sponsored by CompManagement.

Essential learning sessions

Empower yourself with three days of essential presentations to energize you and your district. Align your conference learning sessions with content that fosters growth and supports you, your staff and your students.

The conference curriculum is organized into specific focus areas tailored to the various roles of your district’s educational management team. The focus areas are intended as a guide to help you make the most of your conference learning opportunities and locate the programs most appropriate to your interests and roles. Session speakers will target their presentations to the specific areas of interest listed below; however, all Capital Conference sessions are open to any attendee.

The conference is paperless, with handouts available through the Conference App and the conference website, <http://conference.ohioschoolboards.org/handouts>. Handouts will be posted a week prior to the event; attendees can download or print copies before they arrive.

This year, OSBA has extended its offering of sessions approved by the Ohio Supreme Court for continuing legal education (CLE) credits. Registered attendees can participate in 10 sessions on Monday and Tuesday that have been approved for 10.50 total CLE hours. Attorneys seeking CLEs should check the registration details on page 17.

Additional learning sessions have been added to all three days of the conference, providing a more robust program of professional development. The conference offers more than 170 hour-long learning sessions — the most ever. They begin Sunday, Nov. 10, at 1 p.m. and 2:30 p.m.; Monday, Nov. 11, at 9 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1 p.m., 2:30 p.m. and 4 p.m.; and Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 8 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. Each learning session may be assigned to more than one focus area. You can find more information on learning sessions at <http://conference.ohioschoolboards.org/sessions>.

The conference is paperless. Handouts will be available through the Conference App and conference website at <http://conference.ohioschoolboards.org/handouts> a week prior to the event.

Registering for the Capital Conference

Registration

Registration and housing instructions have been mailed to all superintendents, treasurers, Ohio Council of School Board Attorneys (OCSBA) members, exhibitors and OSBA sustaining members. School board members and other administrators simply need to contact their treasurer or superintendent to register. You must be registered by 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 4 to receive a housing code before housing opens at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 10.

To register for the conference and special events, all attendees from the same district should be listed on the district's registration form. Return this form to OSBA with a check or purchase order covering all registration and ticketed event fees.

For those not registered by Thursday, Nov. 7, on-site Capital Conference registration will be open on Sunday, Nov. 10, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Monday, Nov. 11, from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Tuesday, Nov. 12, from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the center of the Greater Columbus Convention Center Main Concourse.

Registration fees

Registration is $310 per person for each of the first six people from a member school district. School district group registration — more than six people from a member school district — is a flat fee of $1,975. Registration for OCSBA members is $310 per person. Registration for OSBA sustaining members, government employees and retired administrators is $60. Retired administrators who are current board members or rehired administrators do not qualify for the lower rate. Spouses may attend the conference for free but must be registered to receive an official badge.

Those attending the School Law Workshop are subject to the same registration procedures as other conference attendees. Attorneys employed by a school district may register with their district.

Ticketed event fees

Three special Capital Conference events require additional fees, and registration should be paid in advance. Attendees can register on their district's registration form. Event details are on page 5.

Registration for the OSBA Black Caucus Dinner, featuring Charlotte McGuire, is $85. The deadline to register for this event is Nov. 1. Limited tickets will be available at the door for $90.

Registration for the Monday Luncheon, featuring Dr. Frederic Bertley, is $56. Registration for the Tuesday Luncheon, with Maurice Claret, also is $56.

Note: Depending on availability, limited on-site luncheon ticket sales may be available until 11:30 a.m. on Monday, Nov. 11, and Tuesday, Nov. 12, on a first-come, first-served basis at Registration. The cost for an on-site ticket is $60.

Registration and ticketed event cancellation policies

If it is necessary for you to cancel your conference registration, refunds will be made only if your name badge is returned to OSBA by 5 p.m. on Nov. 8. OSBA encourages substitutions from within a district; just notify OSBA of the substitution. For a cancellation of a ticketed event (OSBA Black Caucus Dinner, Monday Luncheon or Tuesday Luncheon), you must notify OSBA by 5 p.m. on Nov. 6 to receive a full refund or no charge to the district. Ticketed event cancellations received after Nov. 6 will be charged 50% of the fee. Cancellations the day of the event will be charged the full amount. There are no refunds for no-shows. Refunds of fees paid will be issued to the district after the conference.

Capital Conference housing FAQ

OSBA works with 13 hotels in downtown Columbus to ensure rooms are held for attendees who use OSBA's housing process and that room rates stay below $220 per night. Unfortunately, OSBA cannot hold every room in those hotels for the conference; hotels determine how many rooms are available in the OSBA room blocks based on the number of rooms that were used the prior year.

Below are some statistics and FAQs on the rooms available through the OSBA room blocks and information to help attendees learn more about the process. To view more details, visit <http://conference.ohioschoolboards.org/housing>.

Conference housing by the numbers

- This year, OSBA has 2,341 hotel rooms available in its room blocks in 13 hotels, an increase of 183 rooms on Monday night.
- In 2018, 536 districts registered for the Capital Conference and received a housing code before housing reservations opened. Of those, 490 district codes were used in the first 20 seconds of housing opening.
- By the minute: 791 room reservations were made in the first five minutes of housing reservations opening in 2018. In the first 15 minutes, 1,600 reservations were completed and 1,913 reservations were made on opening day.

Why should I book inside OSBA's hotel blocks?

OSBA has secured large blocks of rooms at 13 downtown Columbus hotels. Four hotels have access directly to the convention center: the Hilton, Hyatt Regency, Drury and Crowne Plaza, plus two hotels — the Canopy and Hampton Inn — are across the street without a connector. If one of these hotels is your top choice, we cannot guarantee that you will get a room there. All hotels in the housing block are within eight blocks of the convention center. OSBA provides free shuttles for attendees to use to travel to and from the hotels and the Greater Columbus Convention Center (GCCC) during the conference.

Can I be guaranteed my hotel of choice?

Unfortunately, it's impossible for us to guarantee all 9,300 attendees their first choice of hotel room.

Why don't you have more rooms in the blocks?

It's based on room availability in the hotels and the history of conference attendees using the rooms available in the blocks. The more rooms that are used, the more that will remain in the housing blocks. If rooms are unused, they could be removed from the blocks in future years.

I don't want to drive to the convention center. Are there shuttles?

Yes. OSBA offers free, continuous shuttle bus service to the convention center from hotels that are not connected to or near the convention center, as well as to the GCCC East parking lot, on Sunday, Nov. 10, from 11:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Monday, Nov. 11, from 6:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.; and Tuesday, Nov. 12, from 6:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Parking is available at several lots and garages at or near GCCC. This parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Prices vary, depending on locations. Facilities within a few minutes walk include the Vine Street Garage, South Garage, Goodale Garage, and North and East Lots. A parking map is available at <http://conference.ohioschoolboards.org> (see map on page 19 for parking locations).

How can OSBA help?

OSBA is offering free webinars on Aug. 23, at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., to guide members through the housing process. Go step-by-step through the process with an OSBA staff member who can answer your questions. Can't attend? The webinars will be recorded and available the following week at <http://conference.ohioschoolboards.org/housing>.

Capital Conference housing information

Making hotel reservations

You must be registered for the conference or exhibiting in the Trade Show to request conference housing.

After you are registered for the conference, your contact person will receive a confirmation email with information about housing. Hotel reservations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis beginning Tuesday, Sept. 10, at 9 a.m. EDT. To make reservations, use the link and unique housing code found in the email that will be sent to your contact person. To receive the link before conference housing opens, your registration must be received no later than 3 p.m. EDT on Wednesday, Sept. 4. The housing link will not be available on OSBA's website. Housing reservations can only be made with your unique housing code and must be made by Friday, Oct. 18, to guarantee conference rates.

Each reservation requires a credit card number to hold reserved rooms.

Canceling hotel reservations

If you cancel a reservation at any time before 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 6, your credit card will be charged a cancellation fee of $100 for each room cancelled. Reservations may be modified — including changing hotels, the name on the reservation or the dates of the stay — at no charge until Wednesday, Nov. 6. After 5 p.m. on Nov. 6, you will need to contact the hotel directly for any new reservations, modifications or cancellations. Failure to cancel a reservation by 5 p.m. on Nov. 6, failure to check in on the scheduled arrival date or an early departure will result in a one-night's room and tax charge by the hotel.

Please note: No other discounts apply to the housing rates. OSBA's housing block cancellation policies override the cancellation policies of participating hotels.

Note: Pricing current as of June 17, 2019. Parking rates listed are for daily parking and are subject to change.
